Preface

PG Section: Water Resources Engineering of Civil Engineering Department has successfully organized an In-house Conference on “Modern Water Resources Management Initiatives for motivating First year masters students (WRM) towards proficient researches” on 14th May 2019. This was a pioneering and first initiative to motivate and inspire post graduate students towards research by any PG section. The program has been completed successfully as per schedule and First year WRE PG students have participated and attended. It was concluded that such programs will encourage post graduate students towards proficiency in research.
