LD COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

ORIENTATION 2020

With the commencement of a new academic year, it was a chance for all the clubs of the college to invite new students for joining the club. Innovator Club for the same had organized an orientation program for the first and second year students of the college. The Orientation of Innovator Club (where ideas connect)-2020 was organized on 19 th December. It was organized online. It was the 1st online orientation of Innovator Club that ever happened.

Prabhuddha Bhan and Kathan Modi gave introduction of innovator club in different way, and they told us about several activities of innovator club. 100+students joined the Orientation.

Roshan Rawal who is founder of club was invited as a guest. He is CEO at Immersive Solution PVT LTD and also alumni of LDCE. He told us how he got the thought of innovator club and gave provoking speech around 10 minutes which increased our level of enthusiasm.

Manav shah who was the president of club and alumni of LDCE gave speech on importance of innovative ideas and shared innovative and different tho

Zishan Noorani who is a as professor in CE dept gave a fabulous speech on innovative ideas and shared examples of importance of innovative ideas.

After that Poonam Patel and Hasit Parmar conducted some fun activities. In that activities students had to give name of thing from picture. And after that activity club members asked students different questions and they had to give innovative answers. They told students to do not hasitate to express how weird your answer is...!Their behavior was so friendly with students,And because of this they felt comfortable to gave our innovative answers.

The purpose of Orientation was to awake students about importance and need of innovative ideas and get familiar everyone with the innovator club and introduce with the activities of this club. And the session was very interactive because of that fulfilled activities So, this session was all about the activities and opportunities which Innovator club provides. and how they will provide amazing opportunities in the future. The club mainly focuses in raising new questions, new possibilities, to regard old problems from a new angle with innovative thinking. Although this Orientation was organized online students really enjoyed and learned to think outside of the box. They filled with keenness.
