Mr. Neel Panchal and Mr. Tirth Shah were invited as a guest in the event. Mr. Neel Panchal is the founder and CEO of Pratham Notebook and Pratham Community. Pratham community is building a platform where all the youngsters can show their talents and make their network to the next level. Mr. Tirth Shah is the founder of the Mad Programmer Community in which they are conducting sessions to teach coding and arranging some workshops for android development and web development.

Mr. Neel Panchal appeared as the first guest in the event and he explained the real definition of start-up and how to grow a start-up from scratch. He explained how to pitch your idea, how to get funds etc. And he also discussed what different types of problems arise when you try to run a start-up. Although on that day Mr. Neel was not feeling very well yet in the end he answered the questions which were asked by the students. The session was very interactive and everyone was coming ahead and asking real questions about entrepreneurship and start-ups.

After that Mr. Tirth Shah started his talk, he came with very high energy and everyone was feeling very motivated. At the first he asked everyone' s opinion about entrepreneurship, he wanted to know that how people think about entrepreneurs. And after getting so many responses from students he started explaining about how hard it is to run a start-up, how many responsibilities you will have to carry with you as an entrepreneur. And he explained the same things about entrepreneurship in a very different manner. As everyone was asking him to discuss the business model of CRED. So, he discussed CRED business model and pointed out that how you can at profit-making situation from loss-making situation.

During the session, all the team members of Innovator Club were able to maintain discipline and the club has organized the event perfectly. All the participants also got a participation certificate after attending the event. The club has organized the event on an important topic because many people have the wrong perspective about a start-up so the club has successfully spread-out awareness about entrepreneurship and start-up.
